

October is National Breast Cancer Awareness Month

Breast cancer affects one in every nine women.

Early detection is the key to catching breast cancer. Talk to your health care provider about the importance of breast self-exam and regular mammograms.

Visit the LifeMatters[®] Web site to access information on health concerns and tips for creating a healthy lifestyle.

1-800-634-6433

www.neas.com