Dresser® Waukesha® Realigns Distributor Territories in Western U. S.

WAUKESHA, Wis. – Dresser Waukesha, a leading manufacturer of natural gas engines that deliver clean, cost-effective power, has realigned territories among its authorized distributors in the western United States, effective immediately.

Pacific Power Products, Ridgefield, Wash., has added Idaho to its coverage area, which also includes Washington and Oregon.

Toromont Energy Services, Denver, has been assigned Wyoming, Utah, and Colorado north of Pueblo.

Valley Power Systems, Inc., City of Industry, Calif., has added Arizona and Nevada to its coverage area, which also includes California.

Houston based-Waukesha-Pearce Industries (WPI) has assumed responsibility for southern Colorado (south of Pueblo), New Mexico, and Kansas (except for Kansas City) in addition to its existing territory, which is comprised of Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and western Louisiana.

“These are trusted Dresser Waukesha channel partners with proven track records for excellent service in their respective territories,” said Lloyd Beauchamp, vice president, marketing & service, for Dresser Waukesha. “We are confident that they will continue to deliver the high levels of service that our customers in these areas have come to expect.”

Dresser Waukesha’s authorized distributor network gives the company a local presence in United States and more than 90 other countries, providing sales support, aftermarket service and Genuine Waukesha Parts for Waukesha engines used in vital gas compression, power generation and mechanical drive applications.
